Chmn. Bob Hill spoke to the Town Attorney about getting an amendment put together for local vendors who sell seasonal products. The Town Attorney suggested we put something together to present to the Town Board. The general consensus is to have the signs allowed for 4 consecutive months for a fee. If a sign is needed longer than 4 months then another fee will have to be paid. The signs would be no bigger than 24 inches by 24 inches.

Vince Perry wanted to make sure that by doing this amendment that it wasn't going to cost very much to the town.

Bob Church made a motion to proceed with putting together a proposal for an amendment for seasonal signs and then present it to the Town Board.
